

Le pubblicazioni sono presentate in ordine cronologico inverso, per ciascuna categoria. Nella categoria (d) vengono presentati lavori che non sono stati pubblicati altrove in forma riveduta o più estesa. L'acronimo LNCS abbrevia la denominazione della serie Springer-Verlag Lecture Notes in Computer Science.

(b) Pubblicazioni in volume

La Tesi di Dottorato [b.r-27] include sei articoli di ricerca pubblicati in precedenza, rispettivamente nei capitoli 4–9, secondo il seguente indice della Tesi [b.r-27]:

- [1] Introduction
- [2] Quality design rules
- [3] Design of algebraic and logical systems
- [4] [b.r-21] On the nature of TELLUS
- [5] [j.r-6] Equational type logic
- [6] [b.r-22] On the use of equational type logic for software engineering and protocol design
- [7] [b.r-23] On the expressiveness of equational type logic
- [8] [b.r-24] A soft stairway to institutions
- [9] [b.r-26] Compactness and Löwenheim-Skolem properties in categories of pre-institutions
- [10] Conclusions
